PASTORAL LETTER

New Mercies I See

But this I call to mind, and therefore I have hope:

*The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases,
his mercies never come to an end;
they are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.*

*“The Lord is my portion,” says my soul,
“therefore I will hope in him.”*

The Lord is good to those who wait for him, to the soul that seeks him.

It is good that one should wait quietly for the salvation of the Lord.

– The Lamentations of Jeremiah 3:19-26

Undergirding everyone who knows God, who is “in Christ,” is an unshakable divine joy. We are even commanded to “Rejoice in the Lord always, again I say, rejoice!” and “Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances.” Always, no matter what! And that assumes sorrow and suffering. The gospel is light in the darkness—and the darkness can be very dark indeed.

All who live and breathe know sorrow and suffering. Jesus himself is “a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief.” Jesus assumes our suffering and the reality that we will suffer in life, but also suffer for our faith in him.

One of my favorite seminary professors described life succinctly, and correctly, as a “vale of tears.” I looked for the source of that phrase, “vale of tears” and landed in Psalm 84:6, which, in the King James, says that those who trust the Lord are like those :

*“Who passing through the valley of Baca
make it a well;
the rain also filleth the pools.”*

“Baca” means “weeping.” That is, to say they who belong to the Lord are those:

*Who, passing through the valley of tears,
make it a well,
The rain also fills the pools of refreshment*

Wells and pools mean a lot when you are traversing a desert.

Life in Christ is like that. Thank God for his sufficient providence in the midst of sorrow and suffering. There is light in darkness, joy in the sorrow, strength in the weakness. Hope is in the midst of it all.

*When through the deep waters I call thee to go,
the rivers of sorrow shall not thee overflow;
For I will be with thee, thy troubles to bless, and sanctify to thee thy deepest distress.*

- John Rippon

*Morning by morning new mercies I see,
All I have needed Thy hand hath provided.
Great is Thy faithfulness, Lord unto me.*

- Thomas O. Chisholm

Blessings, Jerry

DEAD SEA SCROLLS ALIVE!

Beginning Sunday, October 23, at 9 a.m. in the Upper Room, join Rev. Bill Voigt for a six week class and a fresh new look at some very ancient scrolls. Thought to be one of the greatest discoveries of the 20th century, we hope to shine a new light on these scrolls and fragments, the existence of which can only be described as miraculous. U of A professors, DVD films, Bill and other guest lecturers will be on hand to present these materials. Straight from the caves of Wadi Qumran we will exam copies of these writings, many of which are a rich source of material included in the canon of the Hebrew Bible.

As always, a Southwest breakfast is included, along with other surprises to stimulate your Biblical experience!

THEOLOGY FOR TODAY

Meet the 2016-2017 Tucson Borderlands Young Adult Volunteers!

Hi, I'm Mirra Matheson, a 22 year-old graduate of Whitworth University in Spokane, WA where I studied Spanish, Sociology, Latin American Studies, and U.S. Cultural Studies. As a YAV I look forward to exploring the community of Tucson, AZ and learning how my strengths and passions intersect towards God's calling for my life. I am excited to build relationships and learn alongside others throughout this next year of service and growth. In Tucson, I'll be serving at the House of Neighborly Services.

My name is Mary Baldwin. I am 21 years old and have just graduated Wofford College in South Carolina with degrees in English (Creative Writing), and Spanish. After this year, I am planning to begin working on a master's degree in Library Science. I love reading fiction & fantasy, traveling, writing, and drawing. God has called me to take a leaf or two from some of my favorite books and step forward to listen, grow, wonder, and help others by fighting injustice through this year of service to Him and His people. In Tucson, I'll be serving at Community Home Repair Projects of Arizona.

My name is Graham Duncan, I am 22 years old and I am about to embark upon a great journey. I'm a recent graduate of Asbury University where I studied Political Science and Spanish. I've spent almost my entire life in Owensboro, Kentucky but, beginning this August, I will be spending a year with the Young Adult Volunteer (YAV) program in Tucson, Arizona. I'm not sure where life will lead me after the YAV program, but I know the Lord will use this coming year to show me where I have been called to serve Him. In Tucson, I'll be serving at the Primavera Foundation.

My name is Erik Sandstrom. I spent the last year as a YAV in Little Rock, Arkansas! The YAV life has been a complete revolution in my thought process, and how I choose to see the world I live in. This is why I have chosen to do a second year and expand my mind even more! While in Little Rock, I served with Presbyterian Disaster Assistance. I am very excited to make a new intentional community with my new housemates, and cannot wait to see what Tucson will bring! In Tucson, I will be serving at the Community Food Bank and St Mark's Presbyterian Church.

Hello! I'm Rachel Lovins, 28 year old music teacher. I graduated from the Florida State University College of Music in 2012, and moved to Atlanta Georgia, where I am a member of North Avenue Presbyterian Church. As a YAV in Tucson, I look forward to learning more about myself as a person and Christian and further discerning God's call in my life. I am thrilled to be joining my fellow YAVs in a year of building intentional Christian community. In Tucson, I'll be serving at the Community Food Bank. (Rachel is singing in the Trinity choir!)

Young Adult Volunteers

If anyone wants more information on connecting with these young people, Alison Wood, the Site Coordinator, has an office on Trinity's campus and I am on the Steering Committee for this program. WNA! FALL THEME: "SEPARATION OF CHURCH AND STATE"

Why is this year different from all others? Why are these Wednesday nights different from all others? For starters, it's an election year, but not just any election year! As a result of the rancor that has been so strongly a part of this 2016 election, and as a result of some serious issues occurring across our great nation, we thought it would be important to dive right into challenging waters and present programs designed to help us (or not) reconcile what is meant by the phrase "Separation of Church and State." Your response has been amazing!!! Thank you for coming out and bringing your faith with you!

Without going into great detail, the phrase, "Separation of Church and State" was used by Thomas Jefferson in a letter he wrote on New Year's Day in 1802. Most believe that he was relying on a quote written by a merchant tailor's son, Roger Williams, a theologian, Puritan, and later a Baptist, in a quote that he wrote in 1644. In terms of the more modern words, "playing politics," take note of this gem. On October 31, 1791, a new newspaper was published called the National Gazette. The paper started cranking out articles against the Federalists, especially Alexander Hamilton. The publication was a counter point to the more Federalist leanings of the other newspaper of the day, the Gazette of the United States. The initial brains and money behind the National Gazette? Why, none other than Thomas Jefferson and James Madison.

Friends, as our walk with Jesus informs our walk with this world, may we also rejoice in a Savior who gave himself for us, and who prepares us for a new life in the world to come! See you on Wednesday evenings! Blessings as we enter a new season! Bill Voigt and the WNA Leadership Team.

TRINITY BOOK CLUB

Trinity's Book Club meets the fourth Tuesday of the month (7 pm in the Library).

The October book is Being Mortal by Atul Gawande. We will have a great discussion on Tuesday, October 25! Dr Gawande, a surgeon and public health researcher, has written a book about end of life choices and situations and why doctors need to tell us the facts up front.

Come and enjoy good discussions even if you haven't read the books. Come with suggestions, too!

TRINITY FOOD PANTRY

Report for August 2016

The Month of August saw 97 food bags given to clients plus 1,221 pounds of perishables and dry goods added to those bags.

There were 177 people who came through the food pantry and received 712 pounds of snacks including perishables, water and dry goods like granola bars and some type of protein item. A total of 1,600 pounds of food were picked up at the Main Food Bank on Country Club by four volunteers. The other 333 pounds of food and water were donated by the congregation.

Two new volunteers are helping this month and we are losing one very faithful volunteer due to a change in his school schedule. Volunteers are welcome. The food Pantry was open 13 days in August. The need for donation will be increasing as the fall season approaches. Cold weather in the northern states brings the return of our Snow Birds and our street people.

Your plastic bags are needed.

Thanks for your support, Alice

The Terry J. Dalke Resource Center In September the Trinity Resource Center was busy providing services. Beginning in October, we will no longer be under the wing of We Care. Trinity will be its own/stand alone DES assistor site! Susie Elliott will be moving to New Mexico. September 23rd Lutheran Social Services held a luncheon for Susie, the Supervisor/Site Administrator for Trinity's Resource Center under We Care. Susie has a heart for social work and Christ's work with the underserved in Tucson. We were so blessed to have someone teaching us the ropes. Susie knows how to find services for people with all kinds of needs and she has shown us (Peter Holbrook, Doug and Betty Lu Holland, DeDe Markin and Billie Holbrook) how she performs such magic. Trinity gave her a Trinity T-Shirt and another gift as well as a luncheon tribute.

Come in and check out the Resource Center now that we will officially be a mission through DES for service to the community.

Have a cup of java in Fellowship Hall before worship or buy a bag to take home!

SANDWICH MAKING for the Casa Maria Soup Kitchen will be on the second Sunday, October 9. Please join us after worship to make 600 sandwiches.

SESSION NOTES

Session Notes for September 20, 2016

After an inspiring, thoughtful meditation and opening prayer by Matt Kreamer, Session began their monthly stated meeting. With Matt's words about being rooted in the Word of the Lord and having nothing to fear, we forged ahead with the business of the Trinity family. Here's what we accomplished:

- ◆ Learned about the progress of the Pastor Nominating Committee in the call process.
- ◆ Found out that the October 15th All Church Picnic at Reid Park will begin at 10:30 am to allow time for kickball and children's games before eating.
- ◆ Heard a report from the clerk that active membership numbers total is 190 as the Deacons review that membership roll to find out who might be removed for not participating in the work and worship of Trinity PC.
- ◆ Studied further about family systems described in "The Eight Concepts of Bowen Theory" by Dr. Roberta M. Gilbert.
- ◆ Listed prayer needs for members of the congregation and our pre-election nation.
- ◆ Ate a delicious cake by Jere Voigt to celebrate Bill's birthday and serenade him with song and best wishes.
- ◆ Learned the nominees for Elder Class 2019 are Lynn Moser, Peggy Chamberlain, John Hill, Ruth Russell and Ed Buck and for Deacon Class 2019 are Daphne Madson, Karen Wilkison, Rick Wickizer, Georgia Bach and Steve Barlow. After nominees for the 2017 Congregational Nominating Committee are recruited, Session will call a Congregational Meeting to elect these good people for their future service as leaders for Trinity PC.
- ◆ Found out that Christian Education has plans for Advent and the children's participation in a Christmas pageant as well as making changes to the 2017 SummerFest format.
- ◆ Heard from Growth & Outreach Team that they have engaged with Worship Committee and Property Committee to make some changes in the Sanctuary for a more welcoming atmosphere. Session approved their ideas. More to come.
- ◆ Received Bucky Lovejoy's report that the Administrative Committee of Presbytery de Cristo has approved our development plan; that an official neighborhood meeting is scheduled for October 4th; that the attorneys continue to fine tune the agreement between the Development Group and Trinity PC; and that plans are underway to update the congregation about the latest drawings and timeline for construction.
- ◆ Approved Mission Committee's motion to add a Resource Center line item on the balance sheet so donations can be made directly to the center.
- ◆ Approved the yearly contract with the Community Food Bank of Southern Arizona to be a distribution site.
- ◆ Learned that Billie Holbrook will be our Resource Center Site Administrator as an independent Community Assistor beginning October 2016 to help with unemployment online reporting, ID's, housing applications, job searches, resumes, social security award letters and other services – a happily functional face for Christ in the Tucson community.
- ◆ Found out the timeline for installation of the solar-powered pay stations for the Trinity parking lot.
- ◆ Learned the carillon is under repair.
