Trinity Presbyterian Church will celebrate the conclusion of the Lenten Journey on Easter Sunday morning as the Trinity Choir presents the cantata "At the Ninth Hour." This dramatic presentation traces the events of Christ's last week on earth from the triumphal entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, the solemn power of the Last Supper on Maundy Thursday, followed by the Crucifixion and joyful Resurrection. Don't miss this powerful account of the Passion Story as recounted in the Gospel of Mark.

PASTORAL LETTER

“Easter” and the Rest of the Story

The Good News is about his Son. In his earthly life he was born into King David’s family line, and he was shown to be the Son of God when he was raised from the dead by the power of the Holy Spirit. He is Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 1:3-4

The last Sunday of March is when we celebrate “The Resurrection of the Lord”—AKA “Easter”, which is a gross misnomer from the ancient fertility goddess, Astarte, or Ashtoreth = Venus. Cute. So, let’s stick with “The Resurrection of the Lord.”

We usually celebrate “The Resurrection of the Lord” and “Christmas” as separate, virtually unrelated events. But they are pivotal events in the same story, the Gospel, which is senseless without both—and/or without Jesus’ life and death between them.

So, let’s think about it. The Resurrection of our Lord is definitely the culminating chapter in the “Greatest Story ever Told” about the greatest events ever witnessed, with greatest consequence for everyone and everything. And so it is the culmination of a single, ongoing, larger story.

Christmas is the story of the Incarnation of God in Christ.

*Though he was God,
he did not think of equality with God
as something to cling to.*

*Instead, he gave up his divine privileges
he took the humble position of a slave and was born as a human being.*

Philippians 2:6-7

Good Friday is the story of the Atonement for our sins, that God accomplishes through the death of the Son of God who, through Incarnation, became “the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world”

*When he appeared in human form,
he humbled himself in obedience to God and died a criminal’s death on a cross.*

Philippians 2:7-8

The Resurrection of the Lord is the story of how God declares the successful Atonement for all our sins, forgiveness, reconciliation, and eternal life, by raising Christ from the dead.

*Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.*

Philippians 2:9-11

So it is that Christmas, Incarnation, are prerequisite for Good Friday, Atonement, and for The Resurrection of the Lord—and that The Resurrection of the Lord validates both Christmas, the Incarnation of God in Christ, and Good Friday, Jesus’ Atonement for our sins. Christmas finds fulfillment in The Resurrection of the Lord—our Lord.

Blessings, Jerry

WEDNESDAYNITEALIVE!

Following his highly engaging and informative presentation on Hopi farming in January, Michael Kotutwa Johnson returns to Wednesday Nite Alive on March 30 to speak on "Community Based Housing: A Hopi Perspective." Michael, who sings in the Trinity Choir and is a doctoral candidate in the American Indian Studies program at the University of Arizona, writes the following:

"Henry David Thoreau from his book Walden stated "There is some of the same fitness in a man's building his own house that there is in a bird's building its own nest." Community built housing on Hopi is not as prevalent as it used to be nor are the same materials of sandstone, white wash and clay used for construction of homes as they were in ages past. However, my home resembles those that were built by my forefathers including outdoor bread ovens, roasting pits and indoor Hopi cooking apparatuses along with traditional rooms for seed storage. A house built from nature is like a bird building their own nest. I will talk about the various aspects of architecture and design as well as demonstrate the sustainability such a house affords." Please stop by the current photo display in the narthex to see a photograph of Michael's house and join us in the Upper Room West from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. on March 30.

TRINITY BOOK CLUB

We meet the fourth Tuesday of every month.

10 am to 10:30 Easter Egg Hunt

Then, grouped by ages, children will go into Celebration Park to search for eggs and treasures.

EASTER LILY DEDICATIONS

History, mythology, literature, poetry and the world of art are rife with stories and images that speak of the beauty and majesty of the elegant white flowers. Often called the "white-robed apostles of hope," lilies were found growing in the Garden of Gethsemane after Christ's agony. Tradition has it that the beautiful white lilies sprung up where drops of Christ's sweat fell to the ground in his final hours of sorrow and deep distress. Churches continue this tradition at Easter time by banking their altars and surrounding their crosses with masses of Easter Lilies, to commemorate the resurrection of Jesus Christ and hope of life everlasting. Lilies are $12.00 each. Order forms are enclosed and in the Sunday bulletins or you can order by calling the church office at 623-2579. You may pick yours up on Easter or have it delivered to a shut-in.

Last day to order is Palm Sunday.
