Wednesday Evening Vespers

Dr. Mack hosts a weekly devotional on Zoom called "Wednesday Evening Vespers" each Wednesday, at 6:30 pm for about 30 minutes. This is a brief time of prayer and sharing when Mack shares scripture, a devotional, prayer concerns, and then participants pray as a group. The invitation is available at <http://trinitytucson.org/wednesday-evening-vespers/>.

Thank you to everyone who planned & participated in the Cantata, Advent Mini Concerts, & Christmas Eve Services

This Advent Season we were able to enjoy a new cantata complete with a 18 piece orchestra and two Advent Mini concerts to prepare us for Christmas. Christmas Eve morning we celebrated the birth of Jesus with special music and a message from Dr. Mack. Christmas Eve night we had a candlelight service with several members participating as readers and musicians. The procession at the beginning of the service was wonderful as a small group of youth and adults dressed as the shepherds, wise men and holy family. We are grateful that we were able to worship in person along with having the services available online.

Video recordings of the Cantata, Advent Mini Concerts and Christmas Eve service are available to view anytime at www.trinitytucson.org on the homepage.

CHOIR REHEARSAL is Thursdays at 7:00 pm in the Sanctuary. Join the Trinity Choir as they participate weekly in the service and prepare for the Easter Cantata.
We resume January 11.

HANDBELL REHEARSAL is Thursdays at 5:30 pm in the Bell Room upstairs. See Lynn Moser if you want to participate.
We resume January 11.

PASTORAL LETTER

Have you ever heard of the Christmas hangover? I am not speaking of anything connected to alcohol, but instead that feeling of exhaustion or emptiness that many experience after the holidays. The gifts are unwrapped; we journey back home or bid farewell to loved ones; the New Year arrives, the fireworks burst, the partyers gather, the ball games are played, and then we wake up to the ordinary chores of our lives. Usually, the first chore is storing the Christmas decorations until next year. Once that is done, it is time to “get back to normal.” Of course, the celebrations of Christmas and the New Year do not make any profound changes in us. Holidays are not meant to do this. Holidays represent things that have already happened -things which embody profound meaning. In our nation Martin Luther King’s birthday is the most recent holiday, with others going back as far as Year One on the Julian calendar (which became the Gregorian calendar for most of the world in the 16th century). We celebrate the past in the present because they are on the calendar. The world has taken the primary meaning of Christmas as the holiday itself, but we who believe in Jesus Christ know that Christmas is a sign of something much more - God’s love and our redemption. For the church, Christmas is not about doing (although we do a lot) but being. The Christmas hangover for most is the end of the holiday and the tasks that come with it. The Christmas hangover for Christians is our continuing life in the kingdom of God, and how we are to live the Christmas story – not just for the New Year, but every year, and every day, and every second. Unlike the holiday hangover, we are not left empty and exhausted, but spiritually renewed. As believers, the sacred holidays remind us of who we are and who walks with us. Every Sunday is a celebration of the birth, life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ; and everyday is a chance to enact that life through our compassion, forgiveness, and mercy. The coming year is going to need the Christmas life more than ever. Let us pray that Christ will decorate our hearts with his love each day, that we can share the gifts of his presence with everyone.

Dr. Mack

WISE MEN, STRONG TOWER, AND A WALL

We will be having in-person Sunday School downstairs in Room 8 following the children's message. We will begin on Sunday, January 7th with a visit of the Wise Men to the Christ Child. On Sunday, January 14th, we will celebrate and learn about God, our strong tower, through Scripture, song, and a building project. On the last two Sundays, we will celebrate and learn about obedient Joshua and those high "block" walls of Jericho.

CRUSADERS (3rd - 5th grade) & FAITH ENCOUNTERS (6th grade & older)

Teachers: Debbie Hobbs & Bonnie Stull

GRAB YOUR WORSHIP BAG

We encourage children and youth grades 4th and above to pick up activity sheets and supplies for worship-based activities from the Kids Korner in the narthex and to sit with their families during worship.

LIBRARY NEWS

There is something for everyone. What I enjoy about reading is that it takes me to another place, and I meet interesting characters that I will miss when I finish reading the book. Yes, I get absorbed in the story and the characters. Kathy Moser

CONGREGATIONAL NEWS

WHO'S IN YOUR VIRTUAL PEW Meet Alix Roa

What do you do for a living? In Venezuela I was a Graphic Designer assistant. Here in the USA I have worked 10 years with Special Education children. This year I am working helping children at school who start to learn English, and I am the school Bilingual clerk.

Where is your hometown? It is an idiom in Spanish that says "your hometown is the town where you live." Tucson charmed my soul, I love the desert. I'm grateful to be in this nice city – the Old Pueblo is my hometown.

What do you like to do with your leisure time? I love to walk at Rillito River, climb at/near mountain A, and I practice yoga.

What is your favorite food? Paella Española.

What is your favorite hymn or Bible verse? I love Psalm 91 Jeremiah 1:12 and 30:14

What does this church mean to you? Trinity is my home, I come here to meet with my family. All of you are incredible people, always supporting me with all your kindness and love. I am grateful.

What is something that many people would not know about you? They don't know how grateful I am to be part of Trinity family. Gracias

SESSION NOTES

The last Session meeting of 2023 saw the Deacons and Elders reviving a long-held tradition of having a joint meeting with potluck dinner. The tradition was suspended during the Covid years, and it felt good to return to a dinner meeting with the Elders doing the cooking and the Deacons doing the cleanup. Daphne Madson, Deacon Moderator, summarized the activities of the Deaconate and, as usual, the Elders realized that “Deacons rock!” In 2023, our big-hearted Deacons delivered poinsettias and lilies, sponsored a CPR class, began ushering again, held an all-church picnic with 29 people, blessed and distributed prayer shawls and pocket prayer shawls and hosted a baby shower. Plus, they kept up a card connection with congregants and went above and beyond for those who needed some extra help and concern. This portion of their work helps Dr. Mack with Trinity’s pastoral care.

After dinner and Daphne’s report the Elders answered questions about the property sale and the prospect of new construction beginning in 2025. Elders shared that they plan to have some strategic planning and think ahead with vision. Emmanuel Alley thanked everyone that Trinity is a place where our African community finds warmth and welcome. The two groups separated to conduct their own meetings. Since the event was changed to an earlier date in the month, many Session committees had not yet met. Session business was meager because of this. But here are current accomplishments:

- Treasurer Ruth Russell and the Stewardship & Finance Committee presented a proposed budget for 2024. Session approved the proposed 2024 budget.
- Ruth commented that the Trinity Financial Policies, recently updated by the Committee, are deemed exceptional by some of the financial people that help her conduct our finances. The Elders need to make sure they have a printed copy of the policies for their Session notebook.
- Administration & Personnel Committee reported that they are giving a 3.2% cost of living increase to all Trinity salaried staff for 2024.

- Our Presbytery Commissioners attended a called Presbytery de Cristo meeting via Zoom to elect representatives to attend the General Assembly meeting next June.
- Administration & Personnel Committee also reported that the job openings for the Food Bank site and the Nursery have been posted with the hope that applicants will be found early in the new year.
- Dr. Mack gave the Elders an assignment to write a one or two sentence vision for Trinity PC. Vision drives purpose and the 2024 Session will engage in strategic planning for the coming years.

Before adjourning Session members prayed for congregants with health issues and gave thanks for our blessed church, our children, our African community and for those who step up to do the work that Trinity does as she strives to serve God in the heart of Tucson.
